

College Application Day

By Shawnta S. Barnes – September 26, 2018

Going to college can seem like a daunting task. What should not be a barrier is the application including the application fee. This is why college application day is so important. College application day is Friday, September 28. On this day several universities waive the application fee.

According to an article by WRTV 6, the following colleges will not charge an application fee this Friday. What is also important to note is that some colleges in Indiana never charge a fee. If you know a high school senior, make sure they know about this opportunity.
